Dear Allen:

In case there is any interest, I believe the individual named in the enclosed brief biography and description would be greatly valuable in Latin America at little cost. He is most thorough in any task he undertakes, completely reliable and discreet and apparently very highly accepted in high level business circles throughout Central and South America. His frequent business trips to the South keeps him in touch with a wide field. He has a fine personality, is in good health, is a mature traveler and acceptable in any circle.

I have known him over a period of twenty five years and, after a recent visit with him, determined to drop you this line for your possible interest in view of his particularly excellent background, freedom of movement and established position.

Always my best personal regards.

Sincerely,
